Launch Event heralds bright future for CCR Research Team

Liverpool Cancer Centre Launch Event - 25th June 2009

Clatterbridge Cancer Research will be celebrating the move of its research team to the Cancer Research Centre in Liverpool with a prestigious launch event, being attended by key supporters of Clatterbridge Cancer Research and local dignitaries, including the Lord Lieutenant of Liverpool, Dame Lorna Muirhead D.B.E.

The team, led by Professor Ross Sibson, will now be carrying out its pioneering world-class research from the newly accredited centre of excellence at the Liverpool Cancer Research Centre.

The move will allow for a strengthening of collaborative research among a wider group of professionals and will allow Professor Sibson and his team to further his work on improving tailored treatment options and quality of care for individual patients.

The move is a big step for the CCR research team, which for nearly 30 years has conducted its research from the well-known J K Douglas Laboratories in Bebington, Wirral.

Focus on a Fundraiser: Tracey Jones

On fundraising for CCR:

"Everyone knows someone who is affected by cancer in one form or another. I feel that anything I can do to help raise funds and the profile of CCR, a local charity, will benefit lots of people now and in the future.

"The support and encouragement from the fundraising team is amazing. They always have time to talk and keep us up to date with events and store collections; they are just wonderful people."

On last year's overseas challenge:

"I trekked China last year and met some fantastic people - got a few more ideas about fundraising - from charity nights in pubs and quiz nights, to doing people's ironing for a donation!"

On what is coming next:

"Next year my son George and I are going to Peru. Hopefully George will complete a parachute jump this year as well - but not before his A-Level work! All sponsorship will be in aid of CCR."

On raising sponsorship:

"We have done everything from getting up at the crack of dawn in all weathers to do car boot sales, attic sales, street collections, sponsored walks, bag-packing, craft events and of course badgering friends and family into parting with their money!"

DAREDEVILS WANTED!

Do you have nerves of steel? Then CCR would like to hear from you!

We can help you arrange a skydive to help raise funds for the research funded by CCR.

The skydives, organised by Skyline Events, take place at 25 different venues across the UK, and willing participants can choose to complete the most popular jump, a 10,000ft freefall parachute jump with a qualified instructor, or for the more daring amongst you there is the chance to jump solo from either 3000 or 10,000ft after a day's full training!

So why not amaze your family and friends with your daredevil antics and at the same time raise funds for your local, world-class cancer research laboratory? You could impress everyone by doing the event yourself or even organise a group of friends and colleagues to jump with you on the same day!

To find out more about taking part in a skydive for CCR, call Sam Archibald on 0151 343 4300 for further information and an information pack.
